RE: MAS MARQUES JR. , Diego
Docket # (none) Transfer Treaty

Subject: Request for Pre-Transfer Investigation
(EXPEDITED)

Dear Chief Bocon:

On July 17, 2000, the above-noted individual was convicted by jury trial and sentenced in Spain to 1 year imprisonment on Count one - Burglary; 2 years imprisonment on Count 2 - Burglary; and 12 years imprisonment on Count 3 - Willful Homicide. Pursuant to a Transfer Treaty, he was transferred to the United States to serve the remainder of his sentence and was released to a three (3) year term of Supervised Release in our district on August 20, 2008.

During the course of supervision, the releasee has made a marginal adjustment as he failed to secure employment and had difficulty maintaining a stable residence. Following his release, it was learned that the releasee had an outstanding warrant from South Boston District Court from a case dating back to 1994 for 2 counts of Rape. The Massachusetts Police Department was contacted and stated that they would not extradite on this case. The releasee was provided an opportunity to hire an attorney and subsequently turned himself in on December 24, 2008. Due to arriving at the Courthouse on that date late, he was instructed to return on another date. On that day, he was also advised by Probation authorities that he had 3 additional warrants out of various jurisdictions in the Massachusetts area. Mas Marques returned to South District Court on January 15, 2009, and was remanded and held until February 10, 2009. During the course of the next several weeks he was able to clear up outstanding cases in South Boston, Quincy, Brighton, and Woburn, resulting in all charges being dismissed.

Regarding the Woburn case, this stems from a 1991 complaint of Assault made by his then girlfriend Mary Bulman, who is the mother of his now 18 year old son. In 1995 a default warrant was issued as the releasee failed to return to Court. During a Court appearance on April 3, 2009, there was a finding that he violated terms of Probation and he was ordered to pay a $750.00 Fine which was satisfied on that date. On March 12, 2009, he married Mary Bulman, the alleged victim in the Woburn case. In a written letter from Ms. Bulman she stated that she and the releasee wish to build a future together and she wishes for him to reside with her during which time she will 'financially and emotionally' support him. Ms. Bulman is employed as a Nurse at Massachusetts General Hospital. Attached please find the handwritten letter from Mary Bulman dated April 9, 2009.

Due to the above, we are requesting an expedited Pre-Release investigation. Mr. Mas Margues wishes to reside with his wife at 32 Webster Street, Medford, MA. 02155. Home # (617) 771-8072, and Cell # (781) 391-2995. At this time, he does not have any ties or a residence in this district and will be staying at various hostels until the Pre-Transfer investigation can be completed. Attached please find a copy of the Supplemental Report to the Bureau of Prisons prepared for the U.S. Parole Commission in January 2007, and Transfer Treaty paperwork. Thank you for your assistance this matter. Should you have any further questions, please feel free to contact the undersigned officer at (212) 805-5153.
